REQUIREMENTS

THE MAJOR
(30 credit hours)

The thirty-hour major includes the following requirements:

a. HIST 101 [or HIST 103] **
b. HIST 102 [or HIST 104] **
c. HIST 268
d. One History course before 1700, not including HIST 101 [and HIST 103.]
e. Three credit hours in African, Asian, Latin American, or Middle Eastern History.
f. Twelve credits at the 300 level or above.
g. One History Seminar at the 400 level or above, excluding HIST 403, 464, 468, 491, 493 and Independent Study.

Note:
All history majors must take HIST268 in their sophomore year. If the history major is declared after the sophomore year, HIST268 must be taken the following semester. In all cases, HIST268 must be taken before a 400-level seminar.

[Effective for students matriculated fall 2009 or later]

CREDITS TO TOTAL A MINIMUM OF 124

History Minor Requirements

The History minor requires a minimum of fifteen credits, which are distributed as follows:

1. Two courses from HIST 101, 102, 103, 104, 205, 206.
2. Three courses at the 300 level or above, (excluding HIST 491 and 493).

The minor may be structured to permit concentration in a specific period, topic or approach, and fashioned to meet the individual needs of the student.

PHI ALPHA THETA

Phi Alpha Theta, the international Honor Society in History, has a chapter on the campus of the University of Delaware. To be eligible for membership, an undergraduate student must complete at least twelve semester hours in history, with a 3.1 average in the history courses taken, and a 3.0 overall g.p.a. excluding history. For the purposes of Phi Alpha Theta membership, only three credit hours of AP, online, or transfer credits can be applied to the membership requirement.

Phi Alpha Theta, with chapters on college campuses in all fifty states, as well as Washington, D.C., Puerto Rico, Canada, and the Philippine Islands, is one of the most respected honor societies in the country. Its student members are eligible for one of a number of prizes and scholarship awards annually.

Initiation is held each spring for eligible students. Letters of invitation are mailed in early February. For more information, contact the Department of History, 236 John Munroe Hall.
HONORS DEGREE
Honors advisor: Professor J. Russ

The History Department participates fully in the University Honors Program, including offering its majors the possibility of earning an Honors Degree. Requirements for an Honors Degree are as follows:

- A cumulative GPA of at least 3.400 at the time of graduation.
- At least 30 credits earned in Honors courses:
  - At least 12 Honors credits in the major department or in courses in collateral disciplines specifically required for the major;
  - At least 12 Honors credits in 300-level courses or higher, not including the first-year interdisciplinary Honors colloquium;
  - Three credits in an Honors Degree seminar or Honors capstone course (general capstone course description and current capstone list http://honors.udel.edu/charts/capstone.html) or comparable senior experience approved by the major and the Honors Program, to be completed in one of the last two semesters of the student’s degree program.

HONORS DEGREE WITH DISTINCTION
Advisor: Professor J. Russ

Honors Degree with Distinction: The Honors Degree with Distinction recognizes a student’s completion of the research requirements for the Degree with Distinction in addition to the successful completion of 30 credits in Honors courses through the degree program.

Six credits of Honors thesis or project (UNIV 401/402) and the successful oral presentation of an acceptable thesis or project to a committee of faculty approved by the History department and the University Honors Program. Completion of any additional specifications for the thesis or project set by the major department.

Note: Six credits of Honors thesis may be counted as part of the 30 Honors credits required for the Honors Degree. UNIV 402 satisfies the senior capstone requirement for Honors. It does not satisfy the History 400-level seminar requirement.

For more information on the Honors Degree, please visit the Honors Program website at http://honors.udel.edu

HIST130.010: ISLAMIC NEAR EAST: 600-1500
Matthee    Limit 100    TR 11-12:15
This course satisfies the multicultural requirement of the College of Arts and Sciences. This course offers an overview of Middle Eastern history from the beginnings of Islam until the age of European discovery and exploration. Surveying the background and circumstances of the rise of Islam, the creation of the Islamic Empire, and the subsequent political, social, economic, and religious history of Islamic west Asia and north Africa until the rise of the so called gunpowder states, the Ottoman, Safavid, and Mughal Empires, this course familiarizes students with a variety of cultures and the way in which they interacted and melded to become an overarching Islamic civilization. This course encourages students to consider the composite and variable nature of world cultures. It pursues comparisons and contrasts both within Islamic civilization itself—its Arab, Byzantine-Christian, Persian and Turkish contributions—and between that civilization and medieval Europe at various stages—initial confrontation and conquest, cultural and diplomatic exchange, Reconquista, Crusades. Lectures, discussion, reading. Take-home mid-term, term paper, and a final.

HIST683.010: AMERICAN SLAVERY IN COMPARATIVE PERSPECTIVE
Kolchin  Limit 12  M 6:00-9:00
History graduate students only or permission of instructor.
This graduate reading seminar focuses on American slavery and emancipation in comparative perspective. Beginning with an examination of evolving interpretations of antebellum southern slavery, we will then widen the focus both temporally (looking at colonial-era slavery and emancipation) and geographically (turning to slavery in other New World societies and to forced labor in general). We will thus be concerned simultaneously with the historiography of American slavery, the place of unfree labor in the modern Western world, and the methodology of comparative analysis.

HIST750.010: TOPICS IN REGIONAL WORLD CULTURES
Staff  Limit 20  R 5:00-8:00
PREREQ: HIST710, HIST715. RESTRICTIONS: This course is restricted to students enrolled in the new MA of Social Studies in World History for teachers program. It is a required course for graduate students in this program. Other students must seek faculty approval for taking this course.
Focuses on a single region and its culture over the course of a determined historical era. Attention will be paid to the region's distinct cultural heritage, its people's world view, and how a region's cultural identity has been a factor in shaping historical responses to external challenges and opportunities.
