The Department of History invites applications from junior and senior majors in history for the E. Lyman Stewart Internship. The successful applicant(s) will receive a stipend of $3,000, and will work for ten weeks during the summer of 2014. Examples of sites for internships include:

- Historical Society of Delaware (Wilmington)
- Delaware State Parks (several locations)
- Biggs Museum of American Art (Dover)
- New Castle Historical Society (New Castle)

Junior and senior majors in history at the University of Delaware in 2013-2014, with a g.p.a of at least 3.0 are eligible to apply. Precise dates for the internship can be arranged at the location of the internship.

Deadline for applications: March 6, 2015.

Please submit the following information, using this announcement as your cover sheet:

Name __________________________________________ Student ID ____________________________

Email address _____________________________      Local address ____________________________________________

Classification ____________ Over-all GPA ____________ History GPA ____________

Names of two faculty references: (You do not need letters of recommendation.)

1 _______________________________________

2 _______________________________________

Please also submit:

1) An unofficial copy of your University transcript;
2) A one to two page letter of application which includes a statement outlining your particular academic accomplishments and interests which might qualify you to receive a Stewart Internship. Please indicate if you have any site preferences.

Applications should be addressed to Professor Jonathan Russ and sent to: Ms. Cathy Allison, Department of History, University of Delaware, Newark, DE 19716. Any questions email callison@udel.edu.