The Stewart Internships are open to History majors from rising sophomores to seniors. Three internships are available for summer 2016. You do not have to be seeking a career in museums or public history to apply for these internships.

DEADLINE FOR APPLICATION: 25 MARCH 2016. The top two applicants for each position will be asked to meet museum staff in early April. Decisions will be made by 15 April.

Fill out this application form and return it to the Department of History office or return it electronically to jentzsch@udel.edu

Name:
E-mail address:
Cell phone:
Anticipated Graduation Date:
For which internship are you applying?
Please explain why you are interested in being a 2016 Stewart Intern.

WWW.HISTORY.UDEL.EDU
Research and Public Programs Interns (two positions), Delaware Historical Society

Supervisor: Katie McDade, Head of Read House and Gardens Public Programs
Primary location: Read House & Gardens, 44 The Strand, New Castle, DE

Hours and Stipend
22.5 hours per week for ten weeks; schedule to be set with internship supervisor. $3,000 stipend paid through the University of Delaware Department of History.

Description
George Read II, son of a Delaware signer of the Declaration of Independence and Constitution, built a grand mansion facing the Delaware River in New Castle. The 22-room house was completed in 1804, when the United States was a new nation asserting its identity. The two Read House interns will research and develop a new interactive education program (targeted to Grade 4) and a tour for general audiences that focuses on the principles and meanings of citizenship. Over the course of the internship, students will conduct research and become familiar with collections of the Delaware Historical Society in both New Castle and Wilmington.

Additional requirement
Transportation to and from New Castle is required; transportation between New Castle and DHS headquarters in Wilmington will be provided.

---

Collection Management Intern (one position), New Castle Historical Society

Supervisor: Daniel Citron, Executive Director, New Castle Historical Society
New Castle Historical Society, The Arsenal, 30 Market Street, New Castle, DE

Hours and Stipend
22.5 hours per week for ten weeks; schedule to be set with internship supervisor. $3,000 stipend paid through the University of Delaware Department of History.

Description
The New Castle Historical Society moved into its new home at the Arsenal a year ago, and work on inventorying, rehousing and cataloging the collection is still underway. The Stewart undergraduate intern will receive training in collection management and care and will have the opportunity to learn how to photograph and do research on historical artifacts. Motivated students may also learn how to give tours of the two eighteenth-century houses (the Dutch House and the Amstel House) operated by the society. For the collection projects, the undergraduate intern will work with a graduate student from the Department of History; hours should be coordinated to permit working as a team.

Additional requirement
Transportation to and from New Castle is required. The undergraduate intern must be able to coordinate some work hours with the graduate student intern.