

History Club at University of Delaware Presents

Second Annual

Constitution Panel

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 17TH, 2020

5:00PM-7:00PM

THE CONSTITUTION & CIVIL RIGHTS

This panel will be a discussion on the history of Reconstruction amendments as well as how they have evolved in a variety of constitutional and legislative advances since this defining period of American History.

Panelists

Prof. Alison Parker

Prof. John Martin

Prof. Wayne Batchis

Moderated by

Prof. Dael Norwood

CURRENT STATE & FEDERAL IMPLICATIONS

This panel will be a discussion surrounding the current issue areas of voting rights and criminal justice reform and how both the state and federal governments have addressed these vital issues in recent years.

Panelists

Mike Brickner,
Executive Director of ACLU-Delaware

Prof. Theodore Davis

Prof. Judith Ritter,
Delaware Law School

Moderated by

Prof. Dael Norwood

Supporting College Offices

History Department, Political Science Department, Biden Institute,
Department of Africana Studies & Career Center

For More Information & To Register

<https://www.history.udel.edu/undergraduate/history-club/constitution-panel>