

SUSAN BRYNNE LONG

American Civilization Program
UNIVERSITY OF DELAWARE
Mobile: (703) 344-6119 / sblong@udel.edu

EDUCATION

Ph.D. student, American history, University of Delaware, degree anticipated 2024
Advisor: Dr. Zara Anishanslin

B.A., American studies, Georgetown University, 2019

PUBLICATIONS

Book Reviews

- forthcoming “Christopher Pearl’s Conceived in Crisis: The Revolutionary Creation of an American State,” Pennsylvania History: A Journal of Mid-Atlantic Studies.
- forthcoming “T. Cole Jones’s Captives of Liberty: Prisoners of War and the Politics of Vengeance in the American Revolution,” Journal of Early American History.
- 2020 “Review of Historical Archaeology of the Revolutionary War Encampments of Washington’s Army, Cosimo Sgarlata, David Gerald Orr, Bethany A. Morrison, eds.” H-War, H-Net Reviews, August.

Web-Based Publications

- 2020 “Rutland’s Rebellion: Defending Local Governance during the Revolution,” Journal of the American Revolution.
- 2018 “George Washington’s Voice,” George Washington’s Mount Vernon.
<https://www.mountvernon.org/george-washington/facts/washingtons-voice/>
- 2017 “George Washington On-Screen,” George Washington’s Mount Vernon.
<https://www.mountvernon.org/george-washington/pop-culture/>

Op-Eds

- 2020 “Our leaders getting vaccinated can build confidence in a covid-19 vaccine,” The Washington Post, December 7.

Other Publications:

- 2019 “Rutland’s Rebellion: The Community Response to Prisoners of War during the American Revolution.” Bachelor’s thesis, Georgetown University. 75 pp.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND FELLOWSHIPS

- 2019 University of Delaware Conference Travel Grant

- 2019 Hayek Fund for Scholars award recipient, Institute for Humane Studies, George Mason University
- 2018 Summer research fellow, American Studies Department, Georgetown University
- 2018 Phi Alpha Theta member, Georgetown University, Member
- 2017 Undergraduate scholarship award recipient, Deutscher Akademischer Austauschdienst (DAAD)

CONFERENCES

Papers Presented

- 2020 “Rutland’s Rebellion: Local Governance and Prisoners during the War for American Independence.” Digital conference, The Tattooed Historian, June.
- 2020 “Rutland’s Rebellion: Defending Local Governance During the Revolution.” New Worlds Histories of Crisis and Encounter, History Graduate Student Association Conference, Brown University. Providence, Rhode Island, April. (Cancelled due to Coronavirus)

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Teaching Assistant

- 2019-2021 University of Delaware, History Department
World History I, Dr. Mark McLeod (Fall 2019)
Plagues and Peoples, Dr. Lawrence Duggan (Spring 2020)
United States History to 1865, Dr. Zara Anishanslin, Dr. Dael Norwood (Fall 2020)
Guest Lecture: America’s First Civil War
Film & American Society (anticipated Spring 2021)

SELECT WORK EXPERIENCE

- 2019 Registrar’s Office Intern, Luce Foundation Center Intern, Smithsonian Museum of American Art
- 2018 Collections Intern, Booth Family Center for Special Collections, Georgetown University
- 2017 Historic Trades Intern, Entrepreneur Internship Program, George Washington’s Mount Vernon

LANGUAGE

German (spoken, written, and comprehension)