

UNIVERSITY OF DELAWARE HISTORY CLUB PRESENTS

Constitution Panel

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 2019 · 5:00PM–7:00PM · TRABANT THEATER

PANEL 1

THE CONSTITUTION AND DELAWARE'S ROLE

This panel will be a faculty led discussion on the history of the Constitution and Delaware's crucial role at the Constitutional Convention including many compromises and debates that continue to stand the test of time.

Delaware Division of Historical & Cultural Affairs National Register Coordinator

Madeline Dunn

PANELISTS*

Prof. Jonathan Russ

Prof. Eric Rise

Moderated by
Former Delaware Secretary of State

Edward Freel

PANEL 2

CURRENT STATE & FEDERAL IMPLICATIONS OF THE CONSTITUTION

This panel will be led by renowned policy-makers with experience at both the state and federal level of government. They will provide a window into their viewpoint on current Constitutional issues regarding various policies and legislation and how they have been addressing voting rights, criminal justice & prison reform, the second amendment, and healthcare.

PANELISTS*

Delaware State Senator
Bryan Townsend

Delaware State Senator
Anthony Delcollo

UD Professor
Leland Ware

Delaware Department of Correction Commissioner
Claire DeMatteis

Moderated by
Prof. Nancy
Karibjanian

SUPPORTING COLLEGE OFFICES

Department of History, Department of Political Science & International Relations, Center for Political Communication, Biden Institute, and Joseph R. Biden, Jr. School of Public Policy & Administration

SUPPORTING CLUB PARTNERSHIPS

Make It Count, Phi Alpha Theta, College Democrats, College Republicans

FOR MORE INFORMATION & TO REGISTER

www.history.udel.edu

*Speaker lineup is subject to change

UNIVERSITY OF DELAWARE
ARTS & SCIENCES

This event contributes to the teaching initiative

HISTORY. ADVOCACY. JUSTICE.