

The Indigenous Programming subcommittee of the University of Delaware
Antiracism Initiative presents its inaugural event in honor of Chief Quiet Thunder (1934-2020)

THE ORIGINAL PEOPLE:

THE ANCIENT CULTURE AND WISDOM OF THE LENNI-LENAPE PEOPLE

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 23 • 6:00–7:30PM ET
STREAMED ON ZOOM • REGISTRATION REQUIRED

THE ORIGINAL PEOPLE is a new book about the Lenni-Lenape people and their way of life 500 years ago before Europeans arrived on this continent. The book was co-authored by Chief Quiet Thunder and Greg Vizzi over a 15-year period. It covers some of Chief Quiet Thunder's personal history growing up in Woodbury, NJ, right after the Great Depression, and his career as an acclaimed cultural educator,

GREG VIZZI is a naturalist, nature photographer, and permaculture designer based in Sweetwater, NJ and a close friend of Chief Quiet Thunder for over 25 years.

REGISTER NOW

Sponsored by the University of Delaware
Anti-Racism Initiative

